Saul P. Sarrett Named General Counsel of Cürex Group

NEW YORK, NY June 25, 2014 – The Cürex Group announced today that Saul P. Sarrett has been appointed Managing Director and General Counsel, a new position at this New York, NY based institutional foreign exchange execution, product development and index data company. Mr. Sarrett, 43, is an experienced attorney who has provided a broad range of legal and business development advisory services to alternative investment management and brokerage firms, and served as Special Counsel and General Counsel to preeminent law and financial services firms. He joins Cürex Group from Sullivan & Cromwell LLP where he served as Special Counsel.

Commenting on Mr. Sarrett’s appointment, Jamie Singleton, Cürex Group Chairman and Chief Executive Officer said, “Saul is joining Cürex at an important time in the Company’s development. Saul’s responsibilities will include handling our compliance needs and overseeing commercial obligations. He will be a key partner as we grow our business model and serve our broad array of customers. I expect him to make an important contribution to our strategic planning process as well, particularly given the requirements of the changing regulatory environment.”

Saul Sarrett commented, “I am excited to join Cürex and help guide the Company as it enters its growth stage. I have been impressed with Cürex’s technology and their mission to bring greater fairness and transparency to all users of foreign exchange. In joining a global platform, I know my role will be broad given the changing dynamics in the regulatory environment around the world. Cürex is in a unique position as their products and solutions are not only innovative but represent a fundamental financial markets change that will be welcomed and used extensively by all users of foreign exchange over the coming years.”

About Cürex Group

The Cürex Group is a financial technology solutions provider whose business objective is to provide fairness and transparency to users of foreign exchange, whether they are institutions, corporations or investors. We primarily focus on four business opportunities: foreign exchange execution, foreign exchange indices, data sales, and financial product design and support. Our mission is to work in partnership with our clients to create more efficient foreign exchange investment structures and to lower transaction costs and add unparalleled clarity to all foreign exchange activity. Headquartered in New York, Cürex is independently owned and not affiliated with any other financial services company.
